

Deliverance

Corrosion of Conformity

Is there no one to deliver you from your ignorance?
Maybe you'll look and see there'll be no deliverance
Turn to vulture parasites who prey on lost souls
Suck the life from hapless fools who give them control
No, no deliverance
Pick your own, your own deliverance
No, no deliverance
Pick your own, your own deliverance
Sad domination by those who say
More than they'll ever know
A ticket to the depths of dogma hollow
It's them you follow
No, no deliverance
Pick your own, your own deliverance
Ir-redemption, pure deception
Won't see what's if or you
Shutter your world and you won't be shut out
The devastating truth
Will you, then I'll ever come
To trial against devastating proof
Denial on trial like a jumbo cap vile
Brother are you through?
No one to deliver you from your ignorance
(No, no deliverance)
Maybe you'll look and see they'll be no deliverance
(No, no deliverance)
Turn to vulture parasites who prey on lost souls
(No, no deliverance)
Suck the life of hapless fools who give them control
(Pick your own, your own deliverance)
Sad domination by those who say
More than they'll ever know
To the depths of dogma hollow
It's them you follow
Bleeding inside breathing with pride
They tow the line
We feed the crime with borrowed time, selected fine
No longer will they know, we amputate the shown
