

Have You No Pride

The Donnas

Shoe gazers in blazers
Introduce you to razors, so that
The Wilson twins- they can see you
In all your glory, in all your gloryDon't you care what all the people say
You don't care you're gonna do in any way
All eyes on you and they're burning holes till
There's no one left inside
Have you known prideHow many pairs do you own
How many patches have you sewn on your sleeve
Now don't you dare mend your holes
They tell your story yeah tell your story
(sell your story)What do you write in that journal
Some kind of infernal poetry
So that I'll offer my help
But don't you worry, don't you worry
