Greenhouse

Edamame

In the greenhouse
Among the flowers
You would linger, linger there for hoursThat's where I saw your face
Your body dressed in lace
Your secret hiding place
In the greenhouseWhat were you thinking
Was this the jungle?
I felt the good earth, I felt the good earth rumbleThat's where I saw your face
Your body dressed in lace
Your secret hiding place
In the greenhouseThat's where I saw your face
Your body dressed in lace
Your secret hiding place
In the greenhouseYou were smiling
The heat was rising
The blood-red roses hypnotizing
In the greenhouse
You were waiting
And the perfume was suffocatingThat's where I saw your face
Your body dressed in lace
Your secret hiding place
In the greenhouse
