

Patience And Devotion

Nevertheless

Sweet patience, the product of our love
We can rise above together, we'll make it
The rain fills the sky
We can fight through any weather Take heart tonight
We were made for flight
But it's fate that takes us there Oh, emotions take us for a ride
So all of our insides are screaming
This devotion, it's what we were made for
But now we're wanting more than dreaming We want more than dreaming
And we, we are screaming love
But it's fate that takes us there We've held hostage our desires
Put the water to the fire
For so long, we've been so strong
