You Got the World In Your Hands

Willy DeVille

How do you know just how to please me thought i got you out of my head how good you please me someone set the world on fire don't tell me how you do it i don't ever want to lose it you're the only thing i really desire if this moment lasts forever please promise me the pleasure you got the world in your hands don't stop now
world in your hands, don't stop
how do you know just how to please me
thought i got you out of my head
how good you please me
feel like someone put a spell on me see i'm shaking like a leaf, got me down on my knees my eyes follow every move lord, i want this feeling when i awake push and pull me till i break world in your hands don't stop now
world in your hands the world in your hands, don't stop
