

Rose of Jericho (The Waltz)

Michael Patrick Kelly

He asked her hand in dance
As they played a waltz
She slipped, he grasped the chance
The fire burned down the wall
And thus came the waltz And she got dressed to kill
For he asked her out to dine
The waiter sneaked on the thrill
A first kiss tore down the wall
And thus came the waltz Like a Rose of Jericho watered in the sun
Now she goes letting go of her soul
Breathin' with new lungs
Like a knight he takes the blows
'til the dragon's won
As he fights to free her soul
The kidnapper is outdone
Heart on heart lights the spark What a gem, o finest of men An Eden like romance
Snow White came back to life
Her sigh, his breath, their dance
O timeless mindless time // o blessed plan
Of the great mastermind Like a Rose of Jericho watered in the sun
Now she goes letting go of her soul
Breathin' with new lungs
Like a knight he takes the blows
'til the dragon's won
As he fights to free her soul
The kidnapper is outdone
Heart on heart lights the spark Turn, turn, flow, flow, turn Like a Rose of Jericho watered in the sun
Now she goes letting go of her soul
Breathin' with new lungs
Like a knight he takes the blows
'til the dragon's won
As he fights to free her soul
The kidnapper is outdone
Heart on heart lights the spark
