Locked In The Basement

The Boxer Rebellion

I will lock you down
I will lock you down
I will lock you down
I will, oh I will
I am on your side
I am on your side
I will, oh I will
If you could be all of
This for me, and I
Know you will be mine
I will lock you down

In a bunker underground
Sealed and windowless inside
I will, oh I will
All inspired and complacent
To be loved can disarrange it
This is always one thing you can't win
It is harder and you say it
Love is never yours to make it
It is always one thing you can't win
I don't want anything, anything more
I don't want anything, if I'm without you.
