Hold You

Atb

All the things that I told you
All the things that I never mentioned
All the things that I told you twiceGive me somethin' to turn to
Like an answer that has no question
Give me somethin' that I can't fightAll the things that I told you
All the things that I never mentioned
All the things that I told you twiceGive me somethin' to turn to
Like an answer that has no question
Give me somethin' that I can't fightI don't wanna hold you
I don't wanna hold you down
I don't wanna hold you downI don't wanna hold you
I don't wanna hold you down
I don't wanna hold you downI will always adore you
As the line with no intersection
Never knows what it means to cryChase the wind and she'll steal you
Trap your heart and you'll never get it
These are the things that I've learned from lifeI don't wanna hold you
I don't wanna hold you down
I don't wanna hold you downI don't wanna hold you
I don't wanna hold you down
I don't wanna hold you downI don't wanna hold you
I don't wanna hold you down
I don't wanna hold you
