

Bestial Invasion

Destruction

Early morning, mankind sleeps
There's a roaring in the air
Impenetrable fogThunder rolls and lightning strikes
Hell storms, rush over the earth
But there's no rainHell storms, rush over the earth
Bestial InvasionFog cleared up, people scream
They won't believe that the evil takes controlHell storms, rush over the earth
Bestial InvasionYour time is out, obsession spreads
Death rules, Satan's law is in command
Jesus Christ exists no longerYou better pray to the new lord
Cause he's almighty obey him
