

Dogs

Stan Ridgway

One dog buries a bone and then the
Other dog digs it up and finds
A prize in store
One dog dies and the other dogs go
Dig him up a tomb, with his Name inscribed
Chorus:
And there, on his tombstone
Carved so bold
The words are clear and strong
It says:
This one is for the eyes
For the eyes of the other dogs to come
It's for the eyes of the other dogs to come
One man digs a hole while the
Other another one shovels dirt inside
Another hole
One man says hello, while
Another man is leaving on a
Long journey, to a place he'll not return
Chorus repeat
Every entrance has an exit
Every doorknob has a twist
I wonder what my face looked like
Before it looked like this?
Chorus repeat
