Goinâ€™ Away

Blaze Foley

Goin' Away by Blaze Foley

Goin' away, goin' away
Oh I've been drinkin', what can I say
Oh I've been drinkin' and I've been thinkin'
'Bout goin' away

I can't stay no place, can't stay no place
For too long when I'm feelin' this way
My baby don't need me, she don't even want me
So I'm goin' away

I ain't got nothin', ain't got nothin'
And it gets less and less every day
Don't nobody need me, no reason for stayin'
So I go away

I don't know nothin', don't know nothin'?
Nothin' else I can do but to sing and to play
Oh I keep singing' and I keep playin'
I'll keep goin' away

Goin' away, goin' away
Might leave tomorrow or it could be today
I might go that way, might go another
But I'm goin' away
