Always You

Jennifer Paige

I see a mystery ship out on the water
I wonder where it's sailin' to?
Is someone waitin' in some other harbor?
These fantasies, they blow my way like sirens to a fool
And in the stillness of my soul I keep returnin' toAlways you, you ooo ooo ooo ooo, yeah
I come back to you
Always you, you you you, you ooo ooo, oh yea
I come back
I come back
I come back to youLookin' at myself 'til the mirror shatters
I hear a mad man sing his tune
He said, "It's only love that ever really matters"
I wake up in this dream tonight, that's when I see the truth
Of all the faces in my heart, there's only one I chooseAlways you, hoo ooo ooo ooo, yea
(You know I live, [Incomprehensible])
I come back to you
Always you, you, hey, hey yea yea yea yea yea
(And when I fall to earth you're always there for me)
Oww
I come back
I come back
I come back to youSomething in my soul never changes, baby
You're the one that's keepin' me sane
There is no other, I have ever conceived
Could be my lover and never leave when I run free
Could be my loverThat's when I say the truth
Of all the faces in my heart
There's only one I'd chooseAlways you, hoo ooo ooo ooo, yea
(You know I live, [Incomprehensible])
I come back to you
Always you, you you you, hoo ooo, yea
(And when I fall to earth you're always there for me)
I come back
I come back to youYea yea, eee yea eee yea
Yea yea, eee yea eee yea
Yea yea, eee yea eee yea
(And when I fall to earth you're always there for me)
Do not fall down to you, baby
I come back

I come back to you
Yea yea, eee yea eee yea
Yea yea, eee yea eee yea
Yea yea, eee yea eee yea
(And when I fall to earth you're always there for me)
Always, always
