The World Is A Ghetto

War

Walkin' down the street, smoggy-eyed
Looking at the sky, starry-eyed
Searchin' for the place, weary-eyed
Crying in the night, teary-eyedDon't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghettoDon't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghettoWonder when I'll find paradise
Somewhere there's a home, sweet and nice
Wonder if I'll find happiness
Never give it up now I guessDon't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghettoDon't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghettoDon't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghettoDon't you know that it's true
That for me and for you
The world is a ghettoThe world is a ghetto
