

Teenagers

Department of Eagles

Something's bubbling up inside your holy head
 You want to leave me but you don't know how to say it
 Trying to tell me other ways didn't do any good
 Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh Something's bubbling up inside my head
 I want to stay here but I don't know how Gone, you'll be gone with all that we should be gone
 In the morning, morning maybe we could get back together
 But I don't know if it'd be much better Teenagers, teenagers, teenagers
 Teenagers, teenagers, teenagers Something's tumbling down inside your holy head
 I know you're hiding when you drive by with your hood on Gone, you'll be gone with all that we should be done
 In the morning, morning, morning, morning
