Eulogy

Frank Turner

Not everyone grows up to be an astronaut, not everyone was born to be a king,
not everyone can be Freddie Mercu-ry, but everyone can raise their glass and sing.

I may not be the perfect kind of person,
I may not do what mum and dad dreamed, but on the day I die, I'll say at least I fucking tried.
That's the only eulogy I need,
thats the only eulogy I need.
