

Forever Young

Def Leppard

The cracks are starting to show
'Cause you've had it real bad
 You've had it real bad
Your mind is starting to blow
 'Cause you want it real bad
You want it real badYour heart is such a deep divide
 And your love is just a love denied
 And you want to be
Forever young, forever youngYou got a hunger for lust
 But the high is too much
 It's always too much
 The world gets in your face
 It's throwing you round
It's pushing you downYour heart is such a deep divide
 And your love is just a love denied
 And you want to be
Forever young, forever youngYour heart is such a deep divide
 And your love is just a love denied
 And you want to be
Forever young, forever youngForever young, forever young
 Forever young, forever young
 Forever young, forever young
