

Beneath the Tree

Sampha

Don't fail me now, I need your wishes, wishes, wishes
Don't fail me now, I need your wishes, wishes, wishes I imagine those golden skies
Window down and we're caught in flight
You can let the breeze, let the breeze cool you
And I hope the wind blows out those fires of doubt If there's a monster inside of you
Well, I'm gonna keep it clear
I wish it would take all its things and go
There's no more we need to know But fade out lover, yeah
We need time to recover, yeah
Or you can have a wish, have a wish on me, me, me
(I know it makes you feel at ease, how could I disagree) If there's a monster inside of you
Well, I'm gonna keep it clear
I wish it would take all its things and go
There's no more we need to know We suppress concerns habitually
You take away that apathy
It means you mean somethin' to me
I need assistance beyond my dreams
A fire beneath the dream
A calm sea in anarchy
How do you smile, you smile at ease
My desire burns beneath Don't fail me now, I need your wishes, wishes, wishes
Don't fail me now, I need your wishes, wishes, wishes If there's a monster inside of you
Well, I'm gonna keep it clear
I wish it would take all its things and go
There's no more we need to know
