Cali Girl

Ballyhoo!

it started with a ordinary kiss
what she thought was perminate was a momentary bliss!
she wants to go to him but she dont see no rain.
cause she knows she dont got time for the other thing.

(#1)Moving on... what she says now... miss her when shes gone so she wants to go to california thats what she wants the most she dont need no disapline shes leaving maryland her dreams are on the west coast.

(#2)So she goes from momentary bliss i've got to find something better than this..yeah cause even if she trys to change she'll be right back here someday cause her heart and head dont ever feel the same.
