

Comin Out Strong (feat. The Weeknd)

Future

High Klassified

I got the truth, me, baby! Like a nigga don't dance, but he make moves
They fuck around, now a nigga gotta shame you
I'm shameless, I be rockin' all my chains too
They told me, "Boy I think the money's startin' to change you"
Lord save you, Lord save you
'Member runnin' through the city in the same shoes
Now I'm gunnin' in the Benz and the Range too
I'm on point, now a nigga never take two
They said I couldn't reach Mars, so I turned to a star
Now I might have fucked around, might have raised up the bar
Now I'm talkin' cash, talk cash all on my pump
My nigga Cash said, "Watch what they do for the ones"
I know she wanna be poppin' all over the 'Gram
When the cameras come out, wanna hold my hand
Must be out of your mind, do you know who I am?
Man you're killin' my vibe, do you know who I am?
Oh yeah They take my kindness for weakness
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Take my kindness for weakness
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong
Still comin' out strong I might end up with your hoe if I take one
Nowdays if they don't have a story, they gon' make one
Last night I gave my heart to a fake one
I done end up on the blogs with the wrong one
It's hard to tell the real stories from the fake ones
'Cause nowdays if they don't got it they'll make one
The only time I feel alive when I take this
I want a Vic but I know it ain't safe
Must be out of your mind, do you know who I am?
Used to hit it from behind, do you know who I am?
I can't give you all my time, do you know who I am?
Make you fall in love tonight, must don't know who I am, I am
I showed you a million, no videos
I opened up Bentley doors, I Aventadors
Bodies droppin' and we duckin' the law

If you the one to take the blame, you can't say what you saw, noThey take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' outPluto don't dance, but I make moves

We fuck around, now a nigga gotta shame you

Shameless, I've been rockin' all my chains too

Told me, "Boy I think the money startin' to change you"

Lord save you, Lord save you

They might pick you up, just throw you down with the fall

You must not know who I am (you must not know who I am)

I pour champagne on the ground (I pour champagne on the ground)

My brother Casino said you wasn't Freebandz (Freebandz)

And at the time I couldn't see what he was sayin' (he was sayin')

You turned your back, I shouldn't have ever gave you a chance (gave you a chance)

I got four lawyer fees, shit ain't ever end

I'm a boss, I'm a make my own family (la familia)

You with my ex wildin' with different color candies (so familiar)

I got Jenny, I got Tammy, I got Sandy

You try to sneak and leave 'em then I leave you stranded

Be honest to meThey take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong (be honest to me)

Take my kindness for weakness

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strong

Still comin' out strongKindness, she lie

Still comin', lie

Boss, fuck around, boss

Kindness

Down, like a nigga, she lie

Kindness, she lie

Kindness, oh
