Insatiable

Helmet

It's never easy
Being ignored
When you're worshiped
And adoredAttention starved
Inflatable
An ego that is InsatiableYou've always been
So superior
Avoid eye contact
With the mirrorI still admire your
Toned exteriorI need somebody
I need someone that I can imitate
The attention that I crave
It's self esteem that I can almost saveI need somebody
I need someone that I can imitate
The attention that I crave
It's self esteem that I can almost saveI need somebody
I hate
