Girl for Tonight

Mest

When was the last time I saw you?
Who would have known I'd still be blue?
I'm getting up and movin' on
'Cause I've been drinking here for way too longYou'll be my girl for tonight
Just tell me things will be alright
You'll be my girl for tonight
Just tell me things will be alright
You'll be my girl for tonightHaven't felt real love in so long
My true love left me and she did me wrong
When I'm alone I feel the pain
So I'll get drunk and find a girl to keep from going insaneYou'll be my girl for tonight
Just tell me things will be alright
You'll be my girl for tonight
Just tell me things will be alright
You'll be my girl for tonightI hope tonight will never end
With this angel that heaven sent
I hope tonight will never end
With this angel that heaven sent
That heaven sentYou'll be my girl for tonight
Just tell me things will be alright
You'll be my girl for tonight
Just tell me things will be alright
You'll be my girl for tonightYou'll be my girl for tonight
You'll be my girl for tonight
