Don and Sherri (Hot Chip Version)

Matthew Dear

I've been sending you signals
But my signals have never been seen
I've been writing you letters
But those letters never leave meI bought you a couple of presents
But they sit in the corner unwrapped
I just can't bring myself to fruition
I can't close this permanent gapHow can I let you forget me?
If you don't even know me already?
My name doesn't change very often
But it's never been Don and Sherri
