Breaking Down

Shannon Hurley

Come to bed
You've been up for hours
I want you to hold me
You're working late
And I hardly see you anymore
You don't even know me

But once upon a time
Everything was fine
Now my hope has died

And inside I am breaking down
Losing sleep I'm losing ground
Happiness is all around
But inside I am breaking down

I try to laugh
I try to rise above it all
To keep me from hurting
But everyday
Is getting harder than the last
To keep myself going

I just play along
And hide behind a song
Pretending nothing's wrong

But inside I am breaking down
Losing sleep I'm losing ground
Happiness is all around
But inside I am breaking down

Now you slowly disappear
Until everything is gone
And a you turn away my dear
I'll stay silent
Through my tears

But inside I am breaking down
Losing sleep I'm losing ground

Happiness is all around
But inside I am breaking down
