Notes On My Door

By The Tree

Was I not born up in the sky?
When all there was, was you and I
So far from home
I was not meant to walk aloneI was drowning in a holy war
Now your leaving me notes on my door
Stranded on the shore
You're leaving me notes on my...I went in search of a greener place
Like some, lost star in outer space
Ship lost at sea
Dry land was right in front of meIs it you, is it you, is it you
Wrapping notes on my door in a tune
Red sky, the sun is settling in
I think I hear reindeer on the roof again
Laughter for the pain
My life you rearranged
Break on through
If it's you, if it's you, if it's you, if it's you
Lets go
