Girls Don't Know

Keepsake

Girls don't knowYou think you're the only ones who show emotion
Well I've been known to cry some too
A very sad rock-n-roll song
A happy ending gone oh so wrong
Even the very little things you do(Chorus)
You never let me show you just how sad a boy can be
It's useless to explain to you You'd probably laugh at me (2x)Now I'm the only one who you're running from What the hell am I to do?
Write a sad rock-n-roll song?
Tell you everything I did wrong?
I'll just forget the little things you do(Chorus)Now I want you to remember that summer
That summer when I drove a million miles
To stop you from dying
To stop you from crying
I held your hand as a part of you died
And believe it or not I cried
Because one year before a part of me died(Chorus)Girls don't know
