

This New Art

Vaux

This new art
It doesn't seem to new
I want to set it aside
And try something new
Would you be my something key to turn it around so everyone can Pay for soup
Build a fort

Set it on fire
All has been said
I can't shake this feeling it's all in vain
Time has short changed me again
I don't need to
And i can't see to
An inspiration
A realization
