Stay

Lena Katina

I'm still awake
I'm lonely and longing for you
You come and love me

Then you leave me feeling empty and blueYou're always running, always hiding, always playing a game Coming back for more, you disappear by the end of the dayI want you to stay

You never stay
Come on and stay
I wish you would stay
But you never stayDon't keep me waiting
Heaven won't know
Anticipating

Com'on heaven won't knowWhen I look to your eyes I feel guilty as hell I know our love is forbidden but I still don't careThe fire in your touch on my skin makes my body shake You're coming back for more, you disappear it's more than I can takeI want you to stay

You never stay
Come on and stay
I wish you would stay
But you never stayI want you to stay
You never stay
Come on and stay
I wish you would stay, stay, stayStay!
