

I'll Let You Live

Taking Back Sunday

The first degree was a riot
You were making sure my lesson's learned
I'm not ashamed but I'm trying
I've come to expect the standards you have set
Tell me just how dangerous is second best
You've settled for less and I'm sure you'll settle again
There's no stopping me, I'm gutting you out
Does this make you feel safe?
There's no stopping this, I'm gutting you out
Does this make you feel safe?
The closer I look is just the further that you get
Already stubborn skin thickens
In attempt to understand, understand
There's no stopping me, I'm gutting you out
Does this make you feel safe?
There's no stopping this, I'm gutting you out
Does this make you feel safe?
I got tired of waiting when
The guilt subsides, the night begins
And I know it's not what you deserve
Came as a gift from a good friend that disapproves but understands
That you represent and actively encourage all of my worst habits
They all are proof that we're both capable of the most terrible things
Don't test me
There's no stopping this, I'm gutting you out
Does this make you feel safe?
There's no stopping this, I'm gutting you out
Does this make you feel safe?
I got tired of waiting when
The guilt subsides, the night begins
And I know it's not what you deserve
You got tired of waiting when
The guilt subsides, the night begins
And I know it's not what you deserve
You're silent for good
You're silent for good
I know it's not what you deserve
It's not what you deserve
I know it's not what you deserve
I know it's not what you deserve
