

Roar of the Underdog

Dynazty

This is your ambition, your vision
You don't back from your position
You enquire, you desire, play to win
There can be only one Every hill feels unclimbable
But the power of will can defeat anything, you're unbreakable
It's the moment you choose that you never can lose throwing caution straight to the wind
You will rise to your best when you're put to the test, you're unchainable
There can be only One way, one life, one chance to make it all count
Show you're fearless, let them hear you roar
The roar of the underdog
This is here, this is the now
This is the chance to make it all count
Show you're fearless, let them hear you roar
The roar of the underdog This is my revolution, my collusion
I will stand for my intrusion
My agenda won't surrender
The will of stone is solid to the bone Every step feels untakeable
But the fire within can transcend anything, I'm unquenchable
If you step to the side you will never get by in a world that runs over you
I will rise to my best when I'm put to the test, I'm unbreakable
There can be only One way, one life, one chance to make it all count
Show you're fearless, let them hear you roar
The roar of the underdog
This is here, this is the now
This is the chance to make it all count
Show you're fearless, let them hear you roar
The roar of the underdog
