

Kangaroo

Leo Aberer

Dear Lady Lay, somewhere far away, we thought the moon is bright on a different day,
dear Lady Lay, my sunshine 's away, we thought the moon is bright on a different day I wanna play my blues obeah with my Kangaroos
I wanna Play my blues, my blues, my blues I wanna play my blues obeah with my Kangaroos, I wanna Play my blues, my blues, my blues We eat, coconut, orange, banana, mango, apple, fruits from Havana
lemongrass, green avocado, sweet red apple pie
cookies, muffins, yogurt from Ghana, ice-cream, coffee from Alabama in Brazil we're fishing piranhas, surfing through the sea

Dear Lady Lay, somewhere far away,
we thought the moon is bright on a different day,
dear Lady Lay, my sunshine 's away,
we thought the moon is bright on a different day I wanna play my blues obeah with my Kangaroos
I wanna Play my blues, my blues, my blues I wanna play my blues obeah with my Kangaroos,
I wanna Play my blues, my blues, my blues We eat, coconut, orange, banana, mango, apple, fruits from Havana
lemongrass, green avocado,
sweet red apple pie
cookies, muffins, yogurt from Ghana,
ice-cream, coffee from Alabama
in Brazil we're fishing piranhas,
surfing through the sea

Our life is seems (much to) to be so tuff, tuff tuff, Sometimes I think that I am not strong enough Life feels to me so ruff, ruff, ruff, Oh and I need time,

Say why ain't anything, anything working out for me right now anything anything, works out on my time We eat, coconut, orange, banana, mango, apple, fruits from Havana
lemongrass, green avocado,
sweet red apple pie
cookies, muffins, yogurt from Ghana,
ice-cream, coffee from Alabama
in Brazil we're fishing piranhas, surfing through the sea I wanna play my blues I wanna play my blues I wanna play my blues obeah with my

Kangaroos,
I wanna Play my blues, my blues, my blues Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>