

Gone

Red Sky Mary

I'm gone
So long I'm moving on
There's nothing to discuss
Been treated wrong
And I waited way to long
I've just had enough
You taunt and tease
Try to bring me to my knees
But I'm rising high
'Cause I'm the breeze
The fire to your freeze
Now it's time to fly I'm gone, so long
I'm free to do what I want now
I'm gone, so long
I won't see you around
I'm gone, so long
I'm leaving all of this shit now
I'm gone, so long
Get out of my way
Get out of my way I'm gone
So long I'm rolling on
I'm gonna leave this place
'Cause I can't take
Another wasted day
Looking at your face
I'm more than through
With people like you
So I say goodbye
I'll be on top
Where the party never stops
I'll be flying high I'm gone, so long
I'm free to do what I want now
I'm gone, so long
I won't see you around
I'm gone, so long
I'm leaving all of this shit now
I'm gone, so long
Get out of my way Hey little lover
I don't need a girl smother

Everything that I do or say
Drinking whiskey in the kitchen
Ain't the way we should be living
Just getting by day to day
I ain't ever learned a lesson
'Cause there's always someone messing
Now it's time that I draw the line
And be done with all you bitches
I can't wait to burn these bridges
But I'd rather use dynamite I'm gone, so long
I'm free to do what I want now
I'm gone, so long
I won't see you around
I'm gone, so long
I'm leaving all of this shit now
I'm gone, so long
Get out of my way
