Refuge From The Wreckage

It's Alive

I won't ask you to run for shell and safety
The last thing that I want's for you to leave
It's not your cross to bear
Don't try and save me
The victim of a crime should be set freeIf you take my hand and follow
To a place that we don't know
We'll take refuge from the wreckage
We'll find a place that, a place that we call homeTo give up all the hope of feeling weightless
It's the only other way for us to breathe
I'm afraid we're barely human on the outside
Callous, we can't feel until we're free
(Until we're free)If you take my hand and follow
To a place that we don't know
We'll take refuge from the wreckage
We'll find a place that, a place that we call homeI'm sinking but
I've come to lift the pain above you
Cross out what you've been through
And we can run awayAnd if we damn this whole thing
And come up with a new shade
Of sky but it's a new day
And we can run away
And we can run away
We can run away(Just believe in me)
If you take my hand and follow
To a place that we don't know
We'll take refuge from the wreckage
We'll find a place that, a place that we call homeIf you take my hand and follow
To a place that we don't know
We'll take refuge from the wreckage
We'll find a place that, a place that we call home
