Fathers Be Kind

Ivan & Alyosha

Fathers be kind to your children!
You know it matters what you tell them
Gotta feel for them!
Well go ahead and steal for them!
Brothers be good to your sisters
And lovers leave behind your mistress
Hope is coming soon
Take a pen and a paper and write that tuneWell you know
That the light at the end of the tunnel is dim
Don't answer
To the mediocre lives that have gone aheadCaptains be kind to your kings
If they do you harm don't say anything
Love will find a way
Clarity will come on judgement day.
Dreamers spend some time awake
Open your eyes
Please don't forsake what's in front of you!
Forgetting your portrait all too soon.Well you know
That the light at the end of the tunnel is dim
Don't answer
To the mediocre lives that have gone ahead
Paving the way for the innocent to crumble
It's our children's children and those who have yet to belong
