No One's Gonna Come

Sondre Lerche

Down in the valley you're close to the sun
But we're heading closer as close as can come
So you said, You have to put some truth into your wordsDown in the valley, inside your mansion
You won't have to speak to express what you feel
But I said, You know how it feels but not what to doIt doesn't make sense how you can leave the ground
And enter the sky and stay there tooNo ones gonna come, tell you how it's done
Tell you how it feels, so you can't help
Oh it doesn't work by itself, how come?Down in the valley a myriad of fools
And sometimes they invite you to do what you do
And these fools share my opinion that flying is crazy tooDown in the valley a choice has been made
A new reputation, it sleeps in your bed
Like you said, It never was better than how it wasI know what to say when things fall apart
Now that they grow I'm talking in the darkNo ones gonna come, tell you how it's done
Tell you how it feels, so you can't help
Oh it doesn't work by itself, how come?No ones gonna come, tell you how it's done
Tell you how it feels, so you can't help
Oh it doesn't work by itself, how come?So I thought that's how it was when knows what you do
You can just call, I will pretend not to care
And you pretend on that Ill pretend you callNo ones gonna come, tell you how it's done
Tell you how it feels, so you can't help
Oh it doesn't work by itself, how come?No ones gonna come, tell you how it's done
Tell you how it feels, so you can't help
Oh it doesn't work by itself, it doesn't work by itself
