Dirt Road Prayer

Lauren Alaina

Let the light shine on my momma She's been worrying about me and I can tell she's tired Walk my brother in a straight line I know he's only sixteen but he's be playing with fire Give my grandpa a little peace and quiet. I can feel the years of hard work in his hands Make my days pass just a little bit slower I've been running so fast I've forgotten who I amChorus So I go where the green grass grows The weeds are high and the sun hangs low Look to the sky and I say hello like it's the very first time It doesn't matter how longs it's been, I can talk to God like He's my best friend Take my heart and lay it down again right there In a dirt road prayerHe's a good guy Looks dad in the eye And I wonder if you made him just for me But before I fall give me patience

Until you show me where to take this Chorus It's good to know I can.. Always go where the green grass grows

The weeds are high and the sun hangs low
Look to the sky and say hello.. ooh yeaahh

It doesn't matter how long it's been,
I can talk to God like He's my best friend

Take my heart and lay it down again right there
In a dirt road prayer Yeeeahhh... in a dirt road prayer.... yeeahh.
