

In the End (Sunset Sound Session)

Charlotte Gainsbourg

Help me to see
What it's all coming to
Crumbs on the table
And mud on these shoes
Treading so long
I can't see where we've been
Tracks on the trail
And nails digging in Who's to say it's all for the best in the end Some hands will rob you
And some hands will beg
Some say they'll stay
Til the last dying day
But if actions can't speak
And words cannot do
What ten thousand armies
Can't even fight through Who's to say it's all for the best in the end
Who's to say it's all for the best in the end
