All Because Of A Baby Boy

Joe Diffie

Up and down the street tonight
There's a Santa Claus at every light
Trees for sale on the corner lot
Waiting for a homeEverywhere across the land
Gifts are wrapped with loving hands
Around the world as children sleep
A star begins to glowAnd somewhere, someone quietly explains
To a loved one what all this meansTwo thousands years ago
The sky was bright with the Heavenly host
Peace on earth good will towards men
Has been hangin' in ever sinceFrom that night and forevermore
Every man whether rich or poor
Will share the love, the hope, and joy
All because of a Baby BoyWhen Christmas Day is finally here
And friends and family gather near
Memories shared from seasons past
And a little child will askThen someone, somewhere will quietly explain
To a loved one what all this meansTwo thousands years ago
The sky was bright with the Heavenly host
Peace on earth good will towards men
Has been hangin' in ever sinceFrom that night and forevermore
Every man whether rich or poor
Share the love, the hope, and joy
All because of a Baby BoyYes it's all because of a Baby Boy
