Two Broken Hearts

Sam Outlaw

Two broken hearts went missing, nobody saw them go
Found each other crying and slipped out the back door
Now who knows where they went to or if they will return
Two broken hearts went missing and he found herShe was sick of feeling lonely, she was tired of being used
And all the love she had tried for, just left her broken up and bruised
So she asked the Lord for comfort, then she drank some comfort down
And in walked the last good band still walking in that townTwo broken hearts went missing, nobody saw them go
Found each other crying and slipped out the back door
Now who knows if they made it, it's hard enough to live
Two broken hearts went missing and she found himHe was sick of feeling angry, he was tired of needing booze
Then he saw an angel looking at him from the booth
So he asked the Lord for courage, then drank some courage down
And he walked up to the last good girl still drinking in that town
Two broken hearts went missing, nobody saw them go
Found each other crying and slipped out the back door
Now who knows if they lasted, nobody's seen them since
Two broken hearts went missing and those two left
