Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Moonchild, [Incomprehensible] still live in my heart
Can I ask you something, is your life better now?
Moonchild, still live in my heart
Can I ask you something, is your life better now?Sometimes I feel you're sitting next to me
Listening to my stories
Time always shows me it's hard to understand
How to be myselfMoonlight dries your tears
Moonlight hides your fears
Moonlight dries your tears
Moonlight hides your fearsMoonchild, still live in my heart
Can I ask you something, is your life better now?
Moonchild, still live in my heart
Can I ask you something, is your life better now?Sometimes I feel you're smiling at me
And telling me your memories
The tide always moves fast
Can you tell me how to find words inside a shell?Moonlight dries your tears
Moonlight hides your fears
Moonlight dries your tears
Moonlight hides your fearsCan't you get that? Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Can't you get that? Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?Moonchild, still live in my heart
Can I ask you something, is your life better now?
Moonchild, still live in my heart
Can I ask you something, is your life better now?Can't you get that? Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Can't you get that? Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?Moonchild, do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?
Moonchild, do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?Moonchild, do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?

Moonchild, do you know what you're doing, baby?
Do you know what you're doing, baby? Moonchild
