Pigeon Toe

Fu Manchu

Two wheels a rolling
Locates the deal
Suddenly awoken
Scraping the wheelLost out and over
Short length of ride
Everyone is certain
Everything is all rightWrong place and the right time
Ride high and low
Left for good
We'll never knowCan you see by the tracks left?
Dust settles slow
So we all bow down
Pigeon toeFirst few were a get down
Fast times and all
So out of nowhere
They began to haulRolling through the flatland's
End of day
It too bolts upright
Or so they sayThrough many dirt rides
A blown four O two
Chrome shinning mighty
We already knewCan you see by the tracks left?
Dust settles slow
So we all bow down
Pigeon toeCan you see by the tracks left?
Dust settles slow
So we all bow down
Pigeon toeCan you see by the tracks left?
Dust settles slow
So we all bow down
Pigeon toe
