

Think I'll Go Inside

Joshua Radin

When Im weary and tired
When Im far from home,
I think of you in the rain and I kiss you. I cant build you a castle; I cant buy you a ring; I cant see you tonight,
So I miss you.
Now its raining. Think Ill go inside. Somebody stole my suitcase filled with pictures of you.
So I forget what your face looked like when we were just twenty
And its raining. I think Ill go inside. I felt this way before, walking out your front door.
Im a sea without a shore and its raining. Its really raining.
I think Ill go inside. When I miss the sunshine, all I got are clouds
Its your bed I see, near the fire.
Baby if youve got room, I could come and see you.
Make your favorite tea and when we tire, listen to the rain fall.
Think Ill go inside. Somebody stole my suitcase, filled with pictures of you.
So I forget what your face looked like when we were just twenty and its raining.
Think Ill go inside. I felt this way before, walking out your front door.
Im a sea without a shore and its raining.
Its really raining.
Think Ill go inside.
Yeah its raining.
Baby, its raining.
Think Ill go inside.
