

He Said He Had a Story

The Dear Hunter

There was a silver circle sign
And she was standing at the door
We pressed our way right through the crowd
Our pace was quickened to her floor
There was a single fading light
And there was silk all on the wall
She had a lot of love to give
I was prepared to take it all
[But what did she do next?] She had disrobed
And she was waiting on the floor
She asked me what it was I want
I thought that I wanted it all
[What did you say?] I said "stand up and move your body to the bed"
She quickly stood and turned
And here's exactly what she said
"Please be soft and sweet to me,
This life has not been good you see.
It's hard with such a history
Buried in misery."
[And what did you do next?] I broke a smile reminding that I paid her well
(Her lips were turned?)
And then I felt her hands
Unbuckling my belt
[So was it good?] Oh, it felt like heaven
But I'm sure she was in hell
I made it clear I'd get my moneys worth
Out of the good she sells Break and bind yourself to me
Deliver what you sold
You see that I will only take from you
And use it up
I'll use you up What was your name? Break and bind yourself to me
Deliver what you sold
You see that I will only take from you
To use it up
I'll use you up What was your name?
