Reflections

Ashraf

You came to me
Took my hand
And showed me the light
I was lost and so afraid without you
And now I know that it's true
And this is what it's come to
I love...
You sacrificed everything
And gave me a new home
I will try my best to do what is right
I've got to start this tonight
I can't keep losing this fight

She took hold of me showed me things I've never seen
I began to soar
All i wanted was more...
But she deceived my soul
Left me in the cold
Yet I return to her
In hopes of more pleasure Until...

You came to me
Took my hand
And showed me the light
I was lost and so afraid without you
And now I know that it's true
And this is what it's come to
I love...
You sacrificed everything
And gave me a new home
I will try my best to do what is right
I've got to start this tonight
I can't keep losing this fight

She possessed my thoughts
Tied me up in her knots
Forced me to give in

I am guilty of sin
She knew all of my fears
Drowned my eyes with tears
Lost the will to live
Until you said you'd forgive
Me

I can see her laughing at me
Thinking once again she had me
Looking right inside her eyes
I told her I realize
Never again would she stand between us
Baby
Thinking once again she had me
