

Urgent emergency

Cara Beth Satalino

someone call the police i can't explain the urgency it's an urgent emergency it's emergence of anxietyso this is how it's goin'a be, eh you bathing in bathwater of your misery you put your salted wounds out on display always a victim of your apathyso give up and get free take some responsibility
it's not like the movies, you are your own worse enemyso give up and get free
take some responsibility
it's not like the movies,
you are your own worse enemyi'm going away, i'm not coming back i hope that you know, this is your fault i think it's a shame, the things that you lack i don't even care, this is too badso go, and train your thoughts just like a pet collapse, and you get lost in the phones like that and you go, and you train your thoughts just like a pet collapse and you get lost in the phones like thatso give up and get free take some responsibility
it's not like the movies,
it's not like the movies,
you are your own worse enemy it's not so bad.
