

A Liar's Edition

Causeries

In a hold A haven for ghouls that wander off if high or low On call You counter-strike opinion with a shot but I'm not afraid Cause I've got a liar's edition that I design every corner of where I am roaming in Vegas, where I'm calmer and strong where I've got time to believe in it all Ray of light melt the window bars Let impression in Out of stone Think of me as carved out of a stone Ever shaped by the ocean Cause I've got a liar's edition that I design every corner of Where I am feeling the seasons, come and go Where I am one with the living, I break to be whole I've got time to believe in it all
