

Your Feeling Is Mine

Otis Redding

I hurt your feelings
And you hurt mine, girl
But I still love you
More than anything in this world
Yes, I do, your feeling and mine You got me crying, girl
Im going blind, girl, yeah
Im going up, down, down, up
Losing weight by the pound
Yes, I am, your feeling and mine Heres my love, take it all, girl
Heres my heart, take it all, girl
Heres my lips, kiss them again, girl
And baby, youll be feeling and mine
Will never be hurt again, no So lets get clever, yeah and get together, yeah
And, baby, where you go, I go, you stay, I stay
Everything will be just great
Yes, it will, girl, your feeling and mine You hurt my feeling, I hurt yours
You hurt my feeling, girl, baby, I hurt yours
We gotta stop this thing going
Stop this trying to hurt each other
We got to get together more
Got to make love to each other You've got to love me, baby
Morning, noon and night, yeah
You've got to love me, baby yeah
Make everything alright
