

Through Hell (Live In Baltimore 2010)

We Are the Fallen

Are we alone?
Is there more than we believe in?
Haunting these walls
Shadows crawling out, revealing
Fear in me, Stays in meThe nightmares inside here
My dark fears
All in my head again
The nightmares I might hear
All my tears pull me through hell againI wake in the night
And I pray that I've been dreaming
There's nowhere to hide
From this nightmare calling to me
Fear in me, Stays in meThe nightmares inside here
My dark fears
All in my head again
The nightmares I might hear
All my tears pull me through hell againThe nightmares inside here
My dark fears
All in my head again
The nightmares I might hear
All my tears pull me through hell againThe nightmares inside here
My dark fears
All in my head again
The nightmares I might hear
All my tears pull me through hell again
