Stephen Speaks

(R. Ripperger)
You are my inspiration in work and in play
In the verses I sing and the words that I say
You are to my life, what the sunshine is to the day
And you know that you're welcome to stay
Every candle has a match
And every Journey has a start
Every day has a sunrise
To motivate it's start
And like the cool waters flow

From the mountain spring
You are hope to my soul
That there's more than I've seen
You are my inspiration in work and in play
In the verses I sing and the words that I say
You are to my life, what the sun is to day
And I hope that you know that your welcom to stay
