

Underground Beneath

Heathers

When I leave
And go away
When you see it
When you feel the pain
But you runaway, away away
You don't love me Me (me) my (my) self (self) and I (and I)
Don't know what we want
But they (they) try (try) to force (to force) aside (aside)
The feelings that we try to hide
And we grow
Grow up So when I leave
And go away
Underground beneath
Where suffering and no words can find me
I will run away
Away away
You don't love me Me (me) my (my) self (self) and I (and I)
Don't know what we want
But they (they) try (try) to force (to force) aside (aside)
The feelings that we try to hide
And we grow
Grow up
And we grow grow
