It's a Sad World After All

Elvis Perkins

Stay if you want
There is enough
Sadness for the
Both of usFollow the sound
To the table underground
There will be plenty
Tears goin' roundAnd I would be happy
For you to stay
With me 'til tomorrow
Can become todayIn a sad world
In a sad worldBut when you leave
By powders and my teas
Will speak
Their heads off to meHere everyone knows
Their own name
In a sad world
No two are the sameReal soon, assures the spoon
Watch out!, says the time
Water, give me water
Remember me, begs the rhymeOf a sad world
Of a sad world
